Wegmans Runs Promotion to Benefit United Way of Broome County

(Johnson City, NY)—Wegmans supermarket in Johnson City is currently running a promotion to benefit United Way of Broome County.

Through in-store announcements and requests by cashiers, customers are being asked to make a donation to United Way when they complete the purchase of their groceries and other merchandise.

This promotion is designed to reach retirees and those who do not work at an organization that has a United Way campaign featuring payroll deduction.

This promotion will continue through Wednesday, October 21.
